

Course: CHM1478, Quantum Mechanics for Physical Chemists

Instructor: Prof. Artur F. Izmaylov

e-mail: artur.izmaylov@utoronto.ca

Web: CHM1478 maintains a Quercus web space which archives a variety of course-related information including: grades, class announcements, lecture and lab materials, contact information and links to outside resources. In addition, class emails will periodically be sent via Quercus. To receive these emails, you must have a valid “utoronto.ca” email account registered with ROSI.

Office: LM420C

Lectures: LM 429, Tuesday 13:00–15:00

Recommended Texts: 1) D. J. Tannor, Introduction to Quantum Mechanics: A Time-Dependent Perspective; 2) L. D. Landau, E. M. Lifshitz, Quantum Mechanics, Vol 3; 3) D. J. Griffiths, Introduction to Quantum Mechanics; 4) A. Messiah, Quantum Mechanics, vol 1 & 2.

Marking Scheme: homework 80% (starting 2nd week will appear @Quercus and due the next Tuesday), some assignments will require Matlab (or any other programming environment), presentation of an advanced topic 20%

Course Description: This core course in Quantum Mechanics covers the basic Hilbert space formulation of Quantum Mechanics as well as operator algebra, representations, the Heisenberg and Schrodinger pictures, and the von-Neumann equation for density matrix. The list of other topics is as follows.

- Basic formalism of quantum mechanics: time-independent and time-dependent pictures
- Variational, perturbational, and semi-classical approaches
- Symmetry, representation theory
- Identical particles, second quantization
- Different boundary conditions: open and periodic systems

COURSE SYLLABUS REQUIREMENTS (the sections below must be included in each syllabus):

COURSE POLICIES

Each member of this course is expected to maintain a:

- (i) professional and respectful attitude during all course activities, including classes, laboratories, tutorials, and other online activities.
- (ii) personal calendar/schedule/organizer to ensure that all course activities are completed, and due dates are met.
- (iii) collection of notes recorded independently based on concepts covered in course activities (students registered with Accessibility Services requiring a class note-taker will have access to this accommodation)
- (iv) familiarity with the university policy on Academic Integrity

The University of Toronto is committed to equity, human rights and respect for diversity. All members of the learning environment in this course should strive to create an atmosphere of mutual respect where all members of our community can express themselves, engage with each other, and respect one another's differences. The CHM1478 Teaching team will neither condone nor tolerate behaviour that undermines the dignity or self-esteem of any individual in this course and we wish to be alerted to any attempt to create an intimidating or hostile environment. It is our collective responsibility to create a space that is inclusive and welcomes discussion. Discrimination, harassment, and hate speech will not be tolerated. If you have any questions, comments, or concerns, we encourage you to reach out to the staff in our Equity Offices.

INSTITUTIONAL POLICIES AND SUPPORT

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Academic integrity is essential to the pursuit of learning and scholarship in a university, and to ensuring that a degree from the University of Toronto is a strong signal of each student's individual academic achievement. As a result, the University treats cases of cheating and plagiarism very seriously. The University of Toronto's Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters outlines the behaviours that constitute academic dishonesty and the processes for addressing academic offences.

All suspected cases of academic dishonesty will be investigated following procedures outlined in the Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters. If you have questions or concerns about what constitutes appropriate academic behaviour or appropriate research and citation methods, you are expected to seek out additional information on academic integrity from your instructor or from other institutional resources (see www.academicintegrity.utoronto.ca/).

COPYRIGHT

If a student wishes to copy or reproduce class presentations, course notes or other similar materials provided by instructors, he or she must obtain the instructor's written consent beforehand. Otherwise, all such reproduction is an infringement of copyright and is absolutely prohibited. More information regarding this is available here: <https://teaching.utoronto.ca/ed-tech/audio-video/copyright-considerations/>

ACCESSIBILITY NEEDS

Students with diverse learning styles and needs are welcome in this course. The University of Toronto is committed to accessibility: if you require accommodations for a disability, or have any other accessibility concerns about the course, please contact Accessibility Services as soon as possible.

ACCOMMODATIONS FOR RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCES

Following the University's policies, reasonable accommodations will be made for students who observe religious holy days that coincide with the due date/time of an assignment, tutorial, class or laboratory session. Students must inform the instructor before the session/assignment date to arrange accommodations.

ADDITIONAL SERVICES & SUPPORT

The following are some important links to help you with academic and/or technical service and support:

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF TRADITIONAL LANDS

We wish to acknowledge this land on which the University of Toronto operates. For thousands of years, it has been the traditional land of the Huron-Wendat, the Seneca and, most recently, the Mississaugas of the Credit River. Today, this meeting place is still the home to many Indigenous people from across Turtle Island and we are grateful to have the opportunity to work on this land.
